Attachment 1
Rights of the Data Subject

As a data subject, you are entitled to the protections under the Personal Data Protection Act B.E. 2562 as follows:

(1) Right to withdraw consent

In cases where the Companies have requested and obtained your consent to collect, use or disclose your personal data, you have the right to withdraw such consent to the Companies' collection, usage, or disclosure of the data at any time. The Companies will consider your request in order to take appropriate actions within 30 (thirty) days of the date of receipt thereof.

(2) Right to request access and right to obtain a copy of the personal data

You have the right to request access and obtain copies of your personal data collected by the Companies. The Companies will consider your request in order to take appropriate actions within 30 days of the date of receipt thereof. However, the Companies reserve the right to reject such request if such refusal is in accordance with the law or court order and such access to and/or obtaining a copy of personal data may cause damage to the rights and freedoms of other persons.

(3) Right to request for disclosure of the acquisition of personal data that the Companies have obtained without your consent or from other sources

You have the right to request for disclosure of the acquisition of personal data that the Companies have obtained without your consent. If the Companies have obtained your personal data from a source other than from you directly and intend to collect such data, the Companies will notify you within 30 (thirty) days of the date of such receipt in order to request consent, unless it falls within the legal exemption, in which case, you have the right to request the Companies to disclose the source from which your personal data has been obtained.

(4) Right to obtain personal data and request the Companies to transfer or forward your personal data to another data controller, in the event that the Companies transform your personal data into a format that can be read or used by an automated device and can be forwarded by automatic means

You have the right to obtain your personal data from the Companies in the event that the Companies transform your personal data to a format that can be read or used by automated equipment or device and can be used or disclosed by automatic means. This right includes the right to request the Companies to transfer or forward personal data in such form to other personal data controllers whenever possible by automated means and the right to directly receive the personal data that the Companies transfers or forwards in such form to the other personal data controllers unless it is not possible due to technical conditions. The Companies will consider your request in order to take appropriate actions within 30 (thirty) days of the date of receipt thereof. However, the Companies reserve the right to reject any such requests if the forwarding or transfer of personal data is for the exercise of duties for the public benefit or the exercise of duties in accordance with the law of the company or may breach the rights and freedoms of other persons.

(5) Right to object to the collection, use, or disclosure of the personal data

You have the right to object to the collection, use, or disclosure of your personal data by the Companies in accordance with the law or where it is:

- 1) The collection of personal data in the case where the consent from the data subject is not required because it is necessary for the legitimate interests of the Companies or another juristic person who is not the data controller; this is unless the Companies can prove overriding legitimate grounds for the collection, use, or disclosure of the personal data; or

2) The collection, use, or disclosure of personal data is for the purpose of direct marketing.

When the Companies receive your request to exercise such right, the Companies will immediately separate your data from other data. However, the Companies reserve the right to reject your request if the Companies can prove that the collection, use or disclosure of personal data in the case where the consent from the data subject is not required because it is necessary for the legitimate interest of the Companies was based on overriding legitimate grounds, or was for the establishment of legal rights, the compliance with law or exercise of legal claims, or for raising the defense of legal claims. The Companies will consider your request in order to take appropriate actions within 30 (thirty) days of the date of receipt thereof.

(6) Right to request the Companies to erase or destroy or make personal data unidentifiable

You can request the Companies to erase or destroy your personal data and/or make your personal data become unidentifiable in the following circumstances:

- 1) When it is no longer necessary to retain the personal data according to the specific purpose;
- 2) When you withdraw your consent to the collection, use or disclosure of the personal data and the Companies have no legal grounds for collection, use or disclosure of such personal data;
- 3) When you exercise your right to object to the collection, use or disclosure of personal data and the Companies do not have any grounds to refuse; or
- 4) When the personal data has been unlawfully collected, used, or disclosed.

The Companies will consider your request in order to take appropriate actions within 30 (thirty) days of the date of receipt thereof. However, the Companies reserve the right to reject such request if it is necessary and the Companies have legitimate grounds according to the law to reject such request.

(7) Right to request the Companies to suspend the use of your personal data

You can request the Companies to immediately suspend the use of your personal data in the following circumstances:

- 1) Where the Companies are in the process of verifying for accuracy and completeness, or updating personal data and not causing any misunderstanding at your request;
- 2) Where the personal data may be erased or destroyed, but you want to suspend the use of the personal data instead of the erasure or destruction thereof;
- 3) When it is no longer necessary to retain the personal data according to the specific purpose, but it is necessary you to request that such personal data be retained for the establishment of legal rights, the compliance with law or exercise of legal claims, or for raising the defense of legal claims; or
- 4) When the Companies are in the process of considering the objection to the collection, use or disclosure of your personal data.

The Companies will consider your request in order to take appropriate actions within 30 (thirty) days of the date of receipt thereof. However, the Companies reserve the right to reject such request if it is necessary and the Companies have legitimate grounds according to the law to reject such a request.

(8) Right to request the Companies to rectify your personal data to be accurate, current, complete, and not cause misunderstanding

In the case that any change occurs which may affect the personal data that you have provided to the Companies or that the Companies have collected, if it is still within the retention period of the personal data as set out in the “Notice of Details Relating to the Collection, Use and Disclosure of Personal Data”, you may request the Companies to rectify or update your personal data at any time. The Companies will consider your request in order to take appropriate actions within 30 (thirty) days of the date of receipt thereof.

(9) Right to complain in case of breach of the requirements according to the Personal Data Protection Act B.E. 2562

If you find that there is any breach or violation of the requirements according to the Personal Data Protection Act B.E. 2562 with respect to your personal data, you can make a complaint to the Companies and/or the relevant government entity. The Companies will consider your request in order to take appropriate actions within 30 (thirty) days of the date of receipt thereof.

If you wish to exercise any rights above, you can contact the Companies in the “Contact with the Companies” section.
